Dress Code: Clearview Elementary, like other schools, has a dress code. Hats are not permitted, nor shirts or other clothing that advertises alcohol or other drugs (or any other activities that would be considered inappropriate for youth of that age). It's also a good idea to dress up a bit, since you will be in the role of a teacher.

Language: In an effort to promote an atmosphere in which people from all backgrounds and ability-levels are respected, the school prohibits profanity and language that puts down people of any group. It's important to model the respectful use of language.
