

IOWA BEHAVIORAL
ALLIANCE

...for positive behavior supports, dropout prevention, and mental health initiatives

Suggestions for Rewards in Middle/High School

- Free ice cream cone
- First in line for lunch (gets to leave class 2 minutes early)
- Free pop
- Snack from vending machine
- Open campus for student and a friend for lunch (with parent signatures)
- 6 pack of pop
- Free entry to a home sporting event
- Preferred parking for a week
- School t-shirt
- School Lanyard
- Free homework assignment (not on a major project or test)
- Free piece of pizza from local business (1/2 price donation from business)
- Free video rental (donated)
- Free gas coupons from local convenience store (donated and purchased)
- Stuffed animals
- Some schools have had some success with getting prizes by writing to pro sporting teams (particularly the Twins)
- Freebies that come to the AD or Counselor like t-shirts, mugs, etc.
- "Tee-rific" notes that are posted at the front of the school when a student does something great
- Positive tickets that are simple to fill out and given to students when they are noticed doing something good
- Positive tickets are put in a end-of-the-week drawing for free ice cream (3-5 students)
- Front of the line at lunch passes are given out daily to one lucky student that is exhibiting what they should be doing in the lunch line.

<http://www.educ.drake.edu/rc/elemrewards.html>