

Ready –

Use line basics when you are a line of one! Right side of hallway, hands at your sides, no talking, face forward.

Sign out/get permission before you leave your classroom.

Responsible –

Do your business quickly and quietly.

Wash hands.

Go immediately back to your classroom.

Flush the toilet.

Respect –

Press the button once on the air dryer.

Use the bathroom only to go to the bathroom.

We're here to talk about the 4 Rs! Ready, Respect, Responsible & Restroom!

Getting there–

Teaching points:

Permission from teacher, sign out, follow classroom procedure

Use Line Basics when you are a line of one!

Level 1/Green voice – no talking

Demonstration – walking slowly, twirling around, walking backwards, wrong side of the hallway, calling out to someone down the hallway, etc.

Volunteer to demonstrate Line Basics in line of one.

Quickly, Quietly & Correctly – In the restroom

Role play – volunteer goes into the restroom with the facilitator, they start talking loudly making after school or weekend plans, etc.; pretending volunteer is looking under the stall; water running for a long time. Facilitator pounds on the hand dryer and continues talking loudly over the dryer.

Teaching points- Emphasize Responsible and Respect

Do your business quickly, quietly and correctly.

Level 1 or 2 voice only - Demonstrate

Using the dryer incorrectly

Disrespecting privacy of others

Use the bathroom only to go to the bathroom – not for socializing

Wash hands - playing in the water?

Remember to flush!!

Quickly & Quietly – Returning to class

Role play with same volunteer – discussion about going to the library or the office or some other location in the school before going back to class.

Teaching point-

Always go right back to class using Line Basics.
